

x(Start Film)

A 26-year-old Stewarts Draft man ~~xx~~ remains in critical condition at New Altamont Hospital this morning after a two-car collision on Route 11, East of Christiansburg.

(show film)

The victim--Argel Losh--was driving a small foreign car which smashed head-on into another car driven by Curtis Bland of Montgomery County. The accident occurred last evening on Route 11, about 3 miles East of Christiansburg. Losh received fractures of both legs and one arm, and suffered head injuries. His 23-year-old wife also was injured, ~~but was treated and released from the hospital.~~ Two young children in the Losh car escaped injury. The mishap was investigated by State Trooper Henry Board. Bland was charged with reckless driving, involving a personal injury.