

(live on)

Lieutenant-Governor Mills Godwin tonight put in a strong ~~me~~ plug for education before a Convention dinner of the Diversified Occupations Clubs of Virginia. Godwin said that more money, plus dedication and hard work are needed to give Virginia youth the education they need in a world of rapid change. Godwin--the only announced candidate for the democratic (ROLL FILM) nomination for Governor--was asked later what he'd do about the crisis in higher education if elected Governor.

(SHOW FILM:SOUND UP:SOF)

end cue "people of Virginia want"