

The featured speaker at the Annual Bedford County Chamber of Commerce meeting last night was N B C correspondent Ray Shearer.

Shearer went with Vice-President Nixon on his trip to Russia and accompanied President Eisenhower on his recent 11 nation goodwill tour. He is scheduled to go with the president on his Latin American trip and Russian tour later this year.

Schearer spoke for 40 minutes pointing out the president proved a point ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ to Europeans on his recent visit.....that the United States wants peace. He told numerous anecdotes about the presidents visit to European countries and concluded his remarks with a summation of the good he feels the trip has accomplished.
