

Here in Roanoke (Start film) - - a retired industrialist and a man still on the way up were honored last night. (Show film)

The former president of the Norfolk and Western Railway - R. H. Smith - received acclaim as Roanoke's Boss ~~XXXX~~ of the Year. The award was made at the annual Jaycees' Bosses Night Dinner at Hotel Roanoke.

Also honored was a much younger citizen - Warren Stansbury. Stansbury is district commercial manager for the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company and is quite active in civic affairs. He was termed an outstanding example of the type of key personnel the "C&P employs."

The guest speaker for the night was a Washington, D. C. Attorney - John J. McGovern - who formerly served on the Senate Rackets Committee. McGovern expressed the opinion that the current session of Congress will do little to correct labor abuses, since too many of its members are beholden to labor for their election.

(Back to M.)