

(ROLL FILM)

Roanoke City Democrats elected a new Executive Committee tonight at a mass meeting at the Patrick

(SHOW FILM)

Henry Hotel. The new Committee will meet two weeks from tonight--January 27th--to elect a new City Democratic Chairman. The present chairman Julian Rutherford Jr.--says he'll not be available for the post again. The Committee passed a resolution endorsing former State Senator Earl Fitzpatrick for a post on the Highway Commission. The term of S.S. Flythe of Martinsville expires June 30th of this year.

(live on)