

(LIVE ON)

THE POSSIBILITY STILL EXISTS THAT ADMINISTRATION OF FEDERAL PROGRAMS CONCERNED WITH WELFARE COULD CEASE IN ROANOKE, UNLESS THE CITY MEETS MINIMUM SALARY REQUIREMENTS FOR SOCIAL WORKERS IN THE WELFARE DEPARTMENT. THE STANDARDS WERE SET BY THE STATE, WHICH FINDS ROANOKE BELOW THE MINIMUM STANDARDS. STATE APPROVAL OF LOCAL WELFARE DEPARTMENTS IS A PRE-CONDITION TO PARTICIPATION IN ANY FEDERAL PROGRAM. PERNELL EGGLESTON, A LOCAL ATTORNEY AND MEMBER OF THE WELFARE ADVISORY BOARD, COMMENTED ON THE CONFUSED PICTURE. IT'S A PICTURE

X
THAT COULD BE CLEARED UP THE THE STATE WELFARE BOARD, WHEN IT MEETS TOMORROW IN RICHMOND.

(TAKE FILM, SOUND UP. END CUE: "LOSE ABOUT ONE PER MONTH.")
