

(ROLL FILM)

Roanoke City Manager Julian Hirst has conducted the first meeting of the city's welfare advisory board - appointed by City Council to advise and consult with the Roanoke Department of Welfare.

(TAKE FILM)

Miss Gene Camden and Miss Bernice Jones, heads of the department, spoke briefly, explaining the workings of various phases of the welfare programs.

Social workers also explained their work to the board, and gave case histories, illustrating their point.

After the meeting in the city council chamber, the board toured the Welfare Building and then went on to inspect the Juvenile Detention Home and the Roanoke Nursing Home, at Coyner Spring.

(LIVE ON)

MMF