

~~XXXXXXXXXX~~

(ROLL FILM)

There is a very old nursery rhyme about snow bunnies -- creatures that have fun only when others find the elements too cold or too nasty in the wintertime for proper gamboling.

(TAKE FILM)

A half dozen or so of the girls at Hollins College tried out for the snow bunny team today -- before the lenses of a Channel 10 camera.

The trays from the school cafeteria barely qualified as sleds -- but where there was a will -- I don't think this is a nursery rhyme or a bedtime story -- just an old saying -- there is a way.

The snow was enticing -- but this is ridiculous -- so said our photographer as the snow began to come his way later.

He said he would pass them all if they were in his class. But he goes to Ferrum.

(LIVE ON)