

(roll film)

A high-ranking Shenandoah Life Insurance Company official--T. T. Moore--has been elected

(take film)

President of the Roanoke Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors for 1964. Moore succeeds banker Roy Herrenkohl in the position. Jack Butler was elected Vice President of the Chamber. Butler, currently vice president of Andrews-Pitzer-Butler Fuel Company, was elected to the Chambers Board of Directors this year. The new officers take over January first. Installation ceremonies are set for January 17th, at the Chamber's annual dinner meeting.

(back)