

(roll film)

Approximately 800 high school students are registered for the Fourteenth Annual

Diversified

(take film)

Occupations Clubs of Virginia Convention, at Hotel Roanoke. The convention, made up of four general sessions, began Friday night with registration, and will conclude Sunday...

This morning, Roanoke City Manager Owens spoke before the group.. At tonight's session, Clem Johnston of Roanoke addressed the group on the coming economic revolution.

Billy Ellis of Great Bridge High School is president of the Diversified Occupations Club, and new officers will be chosen at the current meeting.

About 60 high schools are represented.

(live on)