

Republican Delegate M. Caldwell Butler has introduced a bill in the Virginia House of Delegates which would set up a Metropolitan Area Commission.

(Start Film)

The Roanoke Delegate says the Commission would study possible combination of health, safety and welfare services.

(show film)

((Sound Up:))

And Democratic Delegate Kossen Gregory has proposed a bill that would set up a 5-dollar fee for a drivers learners permit.

(Start film)

The money collected would be used to expand driver training courses in Virginia schools.

(show film)

((Sound Up: ))