

President Richard Nixon's action today in ordering federal troops into New York City to handle the mail and calling for court injunctions to prevent striking letter carriers from interfering with the mails/ has created a critical and explosive situation.

That word came late this afternoon from the man who serves as President both ~~of~~ the Virginia unit ~~of~~ and the Roanoke local of the National Association of Letter Carriers said it is entirely possible there will be bloodshed.

WSLS-TV Newsman John Gilbert talked with Parker shortly before airtime.
