

FILM

At Martinsville (Start film) - - - a team from Charleston, West Virginia roundly thumped Coeburn this afternoon as the Regional Pony League Baseball Tournament opened. (Show film)

Charleston whipped Coeburn 10 to 0 in the double-elimination tourney. Two more games are set for tonight. ~~Princeton~~ ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ faces Grundy and Martinsville opposes Montgomery, West Virginia. Coeburn was able to muster only two hits against strong Charleston pitching. Meanwhile, Charlie Reeves, Bud Jones and Ed McKinney were beating Coeburn pitching around considerably. The West Virginia team managed 11 hits- just one more than their total run output.

Charleston established itself as a hard team to beat. The eventual winner will go to Little Creek for the divisional playoffs.

((Back))