Roanoke Valley residents can look forward to the continuation of Spring weather at least through the weekend.

(TAKE FILM)

This afternoon's high of 77 didn't break any records the ~~xxxxx~~ highest temperature on record at the Woodrum Airport Weather bureau for March 25th is 81. But the balmy weather came as a relief to winter weary Roanoke Valley residents coming out of the coldest winter on record. Benches are beginning to be used again in City Parks..... and ~~xxx~~ law chairs are appearing on patios and porches. Today's warmth is a fitting change from the snow flurries recorded on the first day of Spring.
