

Two thousand acres of Roanoke County land has been added to the jurisdiction of the County Sanitation Authority. The action came by a vote of the Roanoke County Board of Supervisors. 50 persons turned out to urge action by the board.

(roll film)

The Authority's plans were announced by it's Vice Chairman, Fred Childress.

(take film, sound up. end cue: "Hopes or plans on whatever." )