The night attendant of the Orange Avenue Shell Station--55-year-old Fred C. Via, says he was robbed of 110 dollars. According to Via, two negroes wearing masks entered the station at 11th Street and Orange Avenue about 3:30 a.m. He says they forced him to lie on the floor while they took the money from a cash register. The bandits, one of whom Via Says looked like a woman, tried to shoot him. He says a gun was shoved against his back and the trigger pulled three times. But the weapon failed to discharge. Detectives found a sawed-off .22 caliber ~~xxxxxx~~ nearby with a bullet jammed in the barrel. ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~
