Here in Roanoke tonight....(start film)

The Fraternal Order of Police, the Ladies Auxiliary and the FOPA held installation ceremonies tonight.
(show film)

The new president of the ~~Police~~ Fraternal Order of Police, Robert Peddigo, of the Roanoke Police traffic Bureau, received the gavel from outgoing president Detective Sgt. Murray Cochran.

In the Ladies Auxiliary, Mrs. Elsie Beer congratulated the new president of the ladies organization, Mrs. C. L. Hubbard.

And Joe Moffatt of the WSLs-TV news department received the congratulations of outgoing president of the Fraternal Order of Police Associates, Paul Johnson, as he took over the office of president.

City Manager Owens gave a brief talk praising the Roanoke Police Department as the "Finest" and a great inspiration.

The gun award to the outstanding police officer went to Officer R. H. Verell of 2535 Windsor Avenue, Southwest. He is known as a courteous, neat officer who always does a good job--quietly..without fanfare.
