The Cisco Kid winged his way into Roanoke shortly before noon today--- all set to take part in the Boy Scouts big Camporee show tomorrow night. (start film) Cisco----whose real name is Duncan Renaldo---- was decked out in full outfit for those who were (show film) on hand to greet him.....

~~XXXXXX~~

taxiplane It was a cold, dreary rain that greeted the Robin Hood of CU taxi the West, as one of Piedmonts big DC-3's rolled up to the terminal.

Door shot Cisco, was greeted as he left the plane by many of his faithful TV followers, who may be found practically glued to the TV set every Friday night at 8:30.

Cisco & kids It was an enthusiastic meeting, especially for the kids who braved the inclement weather to greet their hero.
 And the enthusiasm was just as eager on the part of Cisco.

Officials Officials of the city and the Blue Ridge Council of the Boy Scouts of America were at the terminal also. Cisco will be the main attraction of the show tomorrow night as some 4,000 scouts from 14 counties enjoy the huge camporee at Victory Stadium.

Webber. The keys to the city are presented the western movie and TV star, by Mayor Roy L. Webber. (pad maybe)

Tents. The first group of scouts to arrive and set up their camp was troop 59 from Galax-----As these pictures were taken, the boys were eager to get the tents up and start cooking.

Lines Troop 60 of the Wytheville area, came in by bus shortly afterward and began the job of making their temporary home.
