

FM NEWS:

1-24-68

6244

The Roanoke Broadway Theater League has severed business relations with the Broadway Theater Alliance. The action followed the refusal of the crew of the Broadway Hit, "Fiorello" to do two evening performances at the American Theater.

However, the Roanoke group will continue to sponsor productions which can be adapted to the American Theater stage.

The company producing "Fiorello" said the stage was not big enough for the production.

(start film)

~~Last night, the Theater League President-- Bill Pierce--had these comments to make on the matter.~~

(show film)

~~((Sound UP)))~~