The Post-office at Salem has a new Post-Master tonight.
He's F. Cameron Wiley Jr.

(TAKE FILM)

Postal inspectors confirmed this evening that Wiley has been sworn in as acting postmast replacing G.A. Scruggs who's retiring because of age.

The Roanoke County Democratic Committee has never released the name of the man it recommended to replace Scruggs. Wiley must take a civil service exam and be confirmed by the Senate before the appointment is put on a permanent basis. Five candidates had been seeking the job.
