

(Kahl film)

A Roanoke man is the newly-elected president of the Virginia Retail Merchants' Association. (Show film) He's Robert L. Lynn, head of the S. H. Heironimus Department Store.

Lynn was elected at Martinsville yesterday at the closing session of the State Retail Merchants' Convention. He succeeds Alfred C. Thompson of Miller and Rhoades in Richmond.

During an earlier session yesterday, the merchants directed its legislative committee to work for passage of suitable laws to stop Sunday selling.