

25 sec.

6479

Turning to other news...(start film).....

In Roanoke County, Sheriff Henry Clark has announced he'll seek reelection...

(show film)

Clark was elected Sheriff of Roanoke County in 1955, after serving out the late H. B. McManaway's unexpired term. His present term expires on December 31st this year. Before becoming Sheriff Clark ~~was~~ served in the Virginia State Police as a State Trooper. Deadline for filing in the July 14th Democratic primary is April 14th. Judge Fred Hoback appointed Clark when Sheriff McManaway died.