

Elsewhere in the State...(start film).. .Washington and Lee students and their dates last night celebrated the 50th annual Fancy Dress Ball.

(show film)

"Golden Anniversary, 1959" was the ~~theme~~ theme this year. And 8 of the best themes of past years were utilized in the extravaganza. The figure was led by the 1959 Fancy Dress President, Murray Wadsworth, portraying General Robert E. Lee. His partner was Miss Margaret Handy of Hollins College. The affair is always a welcome break from the grind of mid-winter exams at W&L, and has been called the "South's leading collegiate social event." It was just 50 years ago that Miss Annie Jo White held a small fancy dress party for some of her student friends. Since that time, the Fancy Dress idea has become almost symbolic at the Virginia school.
