South Boston's Diamond Jubilee Celebration is now in full swing. Thus far, one of the big events in the 9-day celebration has been a tour by the Richmond Antique Automobile Club which arrived in The Halifax County Community to help the residents celebrate. About 20 old cars - owned by Richmond motor aficionados - sputtered into town yesterday. Most of them pulled up in front of the South Boston Town Hall. Monday will be another big day for the town. Its been dubbed "Senators" Day.

Former residents will register and Senator Harry Byrd of Virginia is due to be on hand for the occasion.

The antique autos have added an air of authenticity to the revival the ~~XXXXXX~~ of South Boston's past.
