

SOF

ON 321
7632

Warren County High is the last Virginia school closed in the integration controversy to reopen.

School officials said they had expected 14 white teachers not under contract to a private institution to appear, but only six showed up. (ROLL FILM #2)

Supt. of Schools Gasque had this to say concerning the private educational facilities being attended by nearly 800 of the white students. (SHOW FILM)

SOUND UP